Our Task

To empower Chorley Group to manage a converged, time-saving solution of wireless connectivity and Cloud based telephony that proves cost-effective and increases productivity.

The Strategy

Communicate Better, our parent company, introduced a powerful, Cloud based phone solution that simplifies call management by enabling the team at Chorley Group to connect and collaborate from any location, anytime and from any device.

Meanwhile, advanced wireless access points, fibre connectivity, and firewall protection all help provide secure access for public users.

The Results

Chorley Group have noted that rich connectivity ensures there is no downtime and has helped boost productivity by over 14%.

We have helped Chorley Group save time and money through a flexible and reliable solution that keeps systems running at all times.

With all systems securely hosted in the Cloud, We have also removed the need for a physical infrastructure, as well as unnecessary expenses. Unsurprisingly, this has led to a 19% increase in customer satisfaction.

They Said...

"We're absolutely thrilled with the service and support across our multiple sites. The solution and guidance we've received from the team has helped make a real difference in the running of our operation. We could not be happier!"
